  - N=1,368 Battleground Senate States (±2.6%)
  - N=844 Texas (including N=176 Rio Grande Valley) (±3.4%)
  - N=516 Florida (±4.3%)
  - N=337 Arizona (±5.3%)
  - N=421 California (±4.8%)
  - N=241 Michigan (±6.3%)
- Field Dates: October 20 – November 3, 2026
- Survey available in English and Spanish, according to respondent preference
- Administered via live phone, text invite, and online panels
- All respondents voted in the 2026 election

Key Findings

2026 Midterm Election Voter Poll

1. Two in three Arizona Latino voters (67%) say the country is on the wrong track, a view shared across every region and subgroup.

2. Cost of living is the top issue by a wide margin (61%). Groceries (57%), housing (41%) and health care (34%) top the list of worries. Nearly half have nothing left over at the end of the month or are struggling, and 42% expect Trump's economic policies to leave them worse off, versus 15% who expect to be better off.

3. Trump is deeply underwater with Arizona Latino voters. Nearly three in four (72%) view him unfavorably, and roughly seven in ten or more disapprove of his handling of inflation (76%), the war with Iran (71%), the economy (69%), and immigration enforcement and ICE (68%).

4. Democrats are seen as caring; Republicans are not. 67% say Democrats care a great deal about the Latino community, compared with 25% for Republicans. Three in four (75%) say Republicans don't care or are hostile.

5. A fast-renewing electorate. Three in ten (30%) Arizona Latino voters first voted in 2022 or later, including 42% of those under 40.

Key Findings

2026 Midterm Election Voter Poll

6. Arizona Latino voters favored Democratic House candidates 73% to 26%, 7 points more than they gave Harris in 2024, with every region and subgroup shown favoring Democrats.

7. Arizona Latino voters backed Hobbs by a wide margin. Arizona Latino voters backed Democrat Katie Hobbs over Republican Andy Biggs 70% to 24% for governor.

8. Voters report higher levels of contact than previous polling shows. Overall, 63% of Arizona Latino voters were contacted, 34% by Democrats and 15% by Republicans. Rising contact is no doubt a contributing factor to increased Latino voter turnout.

9. More than nine in ten (93%), including 89% of Trump 2024 voters, want a balanced immigration system with an earned path to citizenship. Conversely, a sizeable majority of Latino voters think ICE actions are over the line.

10. Concern for democracy runs deep. More than eight in ten worry that Congress (85%) and the Supreme Court (87%) aren't checking the President, nearly eight in ten say civil rights are under threat or no longer secure, and nearly two-thirds (64%) worry their family or community could be targeted by government policies.

Arizona Latino voters want Congress to act on AI, voting rights, food assistance, and health care costs

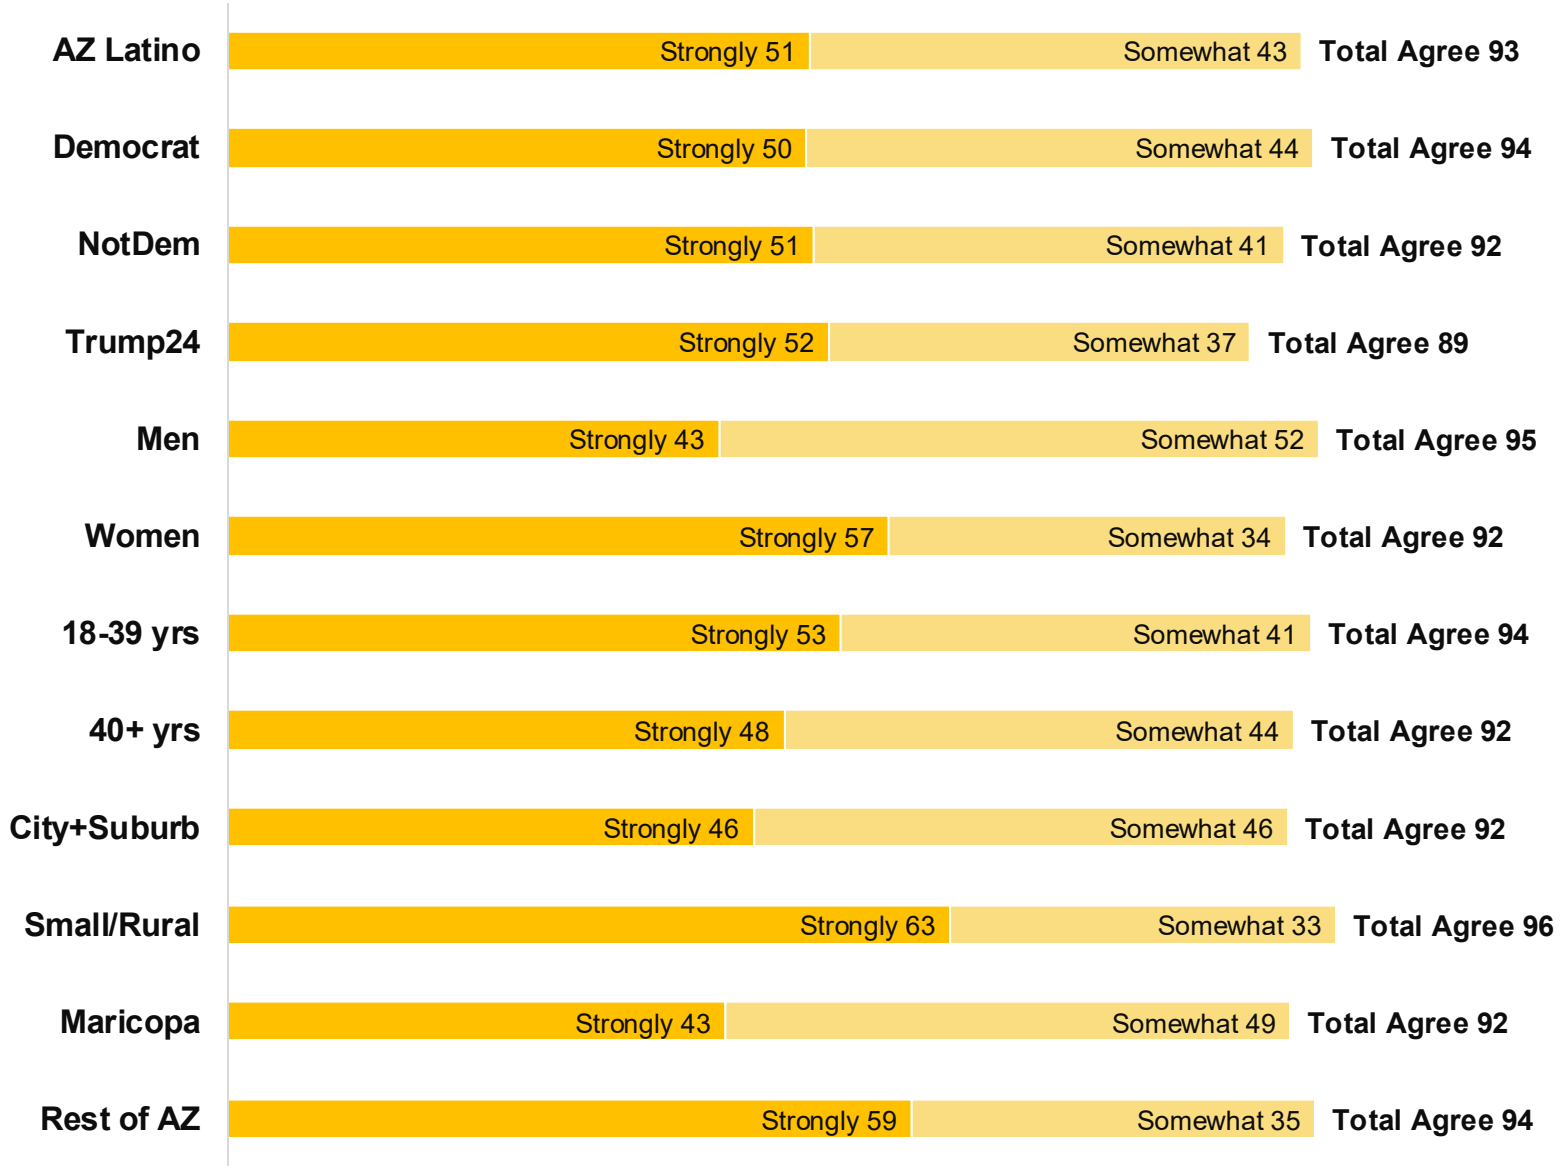
Do you support or oppose the following federal actions, policies, or proposals?

	Total Support (strong)
Regulating artificial intelligence (AI) to make sure humans, not AI systems, stay in control of military weapons, banks, and Americans' personal information	80 (57)
Passing a new voting rights act to ensure that all eligible American citizens can vote without barriers	78 (50)
Restoring full federal funding to food and nutrition programs (SNAP/food stamps) that were cut in 2025	77 (61)
Restoring the tax credits that were cut, to help people buy health insurance through the Affordable Care Act	77 (48)
Reforms to immigration enforcement, that would require ICE to wear clearly identifiable uniforms and body cameras, prohibit masks, and restrict their ability to use force	77 (56)
Creating a program for universal childcare or early childhood education at low or no cost to families of all incomes	75 (53)
Creating a path to permanent legal status and citizenship for long-residing undocumented immigrants who pass a background check and pay a fine	74 (52)
Cancel the $240 billion appropriation to ICE for immigration enforcement and invest that into other government programs.	69 (52)
Reversing the 10-year, $1 trillion funding cuts to Medicaid enacted in 2025	68 (49)
Passing a law to prevent changes to the U.S. Census that would reduce the accuracy or exclude any residents from being counted	60 (36)
Blocking the use of taxpayer money from public schools to be used for vouchers for tuition at private or religious schools	56 (37)

Hispanic voters overwhelmingly support an immigration system that includes legalization and border security

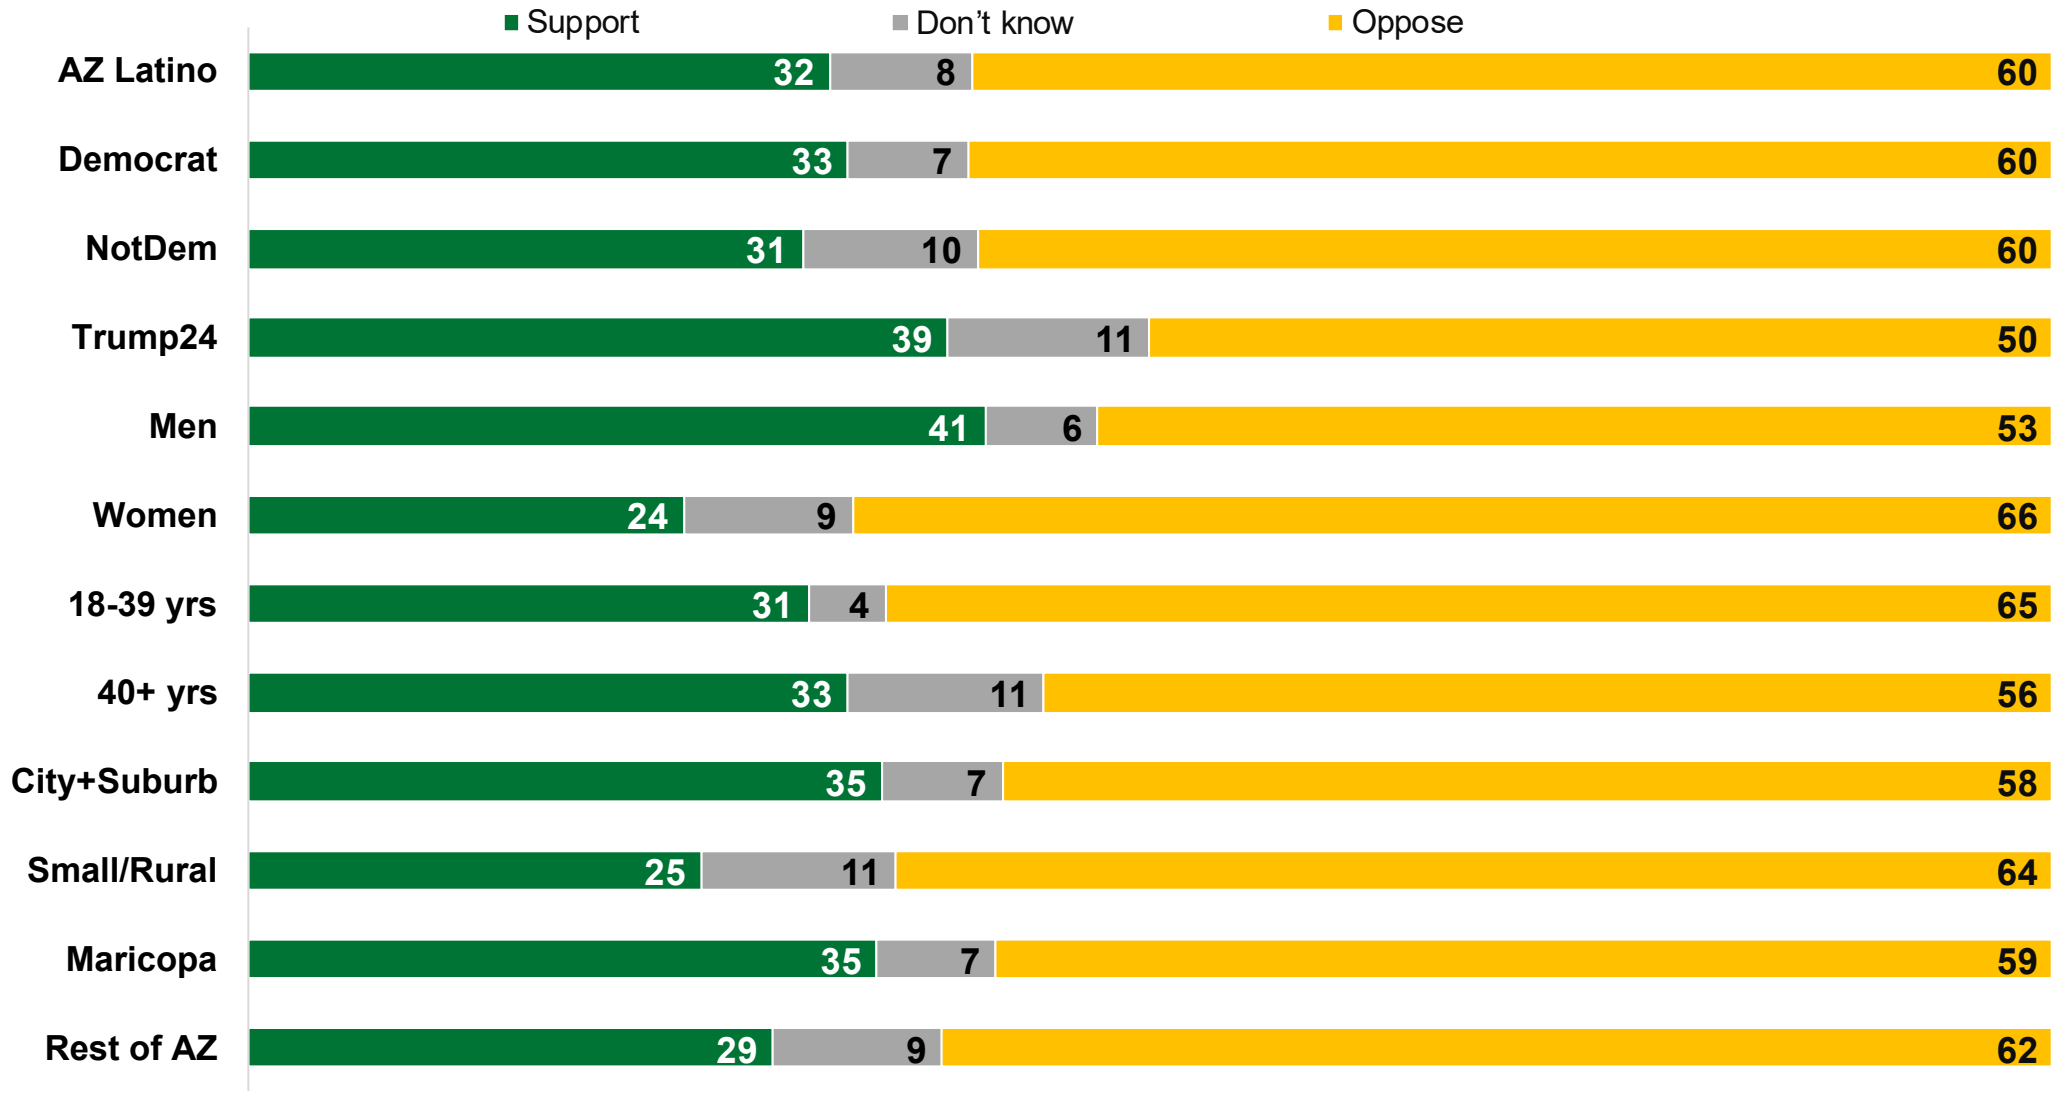
When it comes to immigration policy, do you agree or disagree with the following statement:

We need a balanced and orderly immigration system that has an earned path to citizenship for long-term residents; focuses enforcement inside the country on keeping communities safe, with clear accountability; offers legal ways to immigrate that help our economy and families; and keeps the border secure.



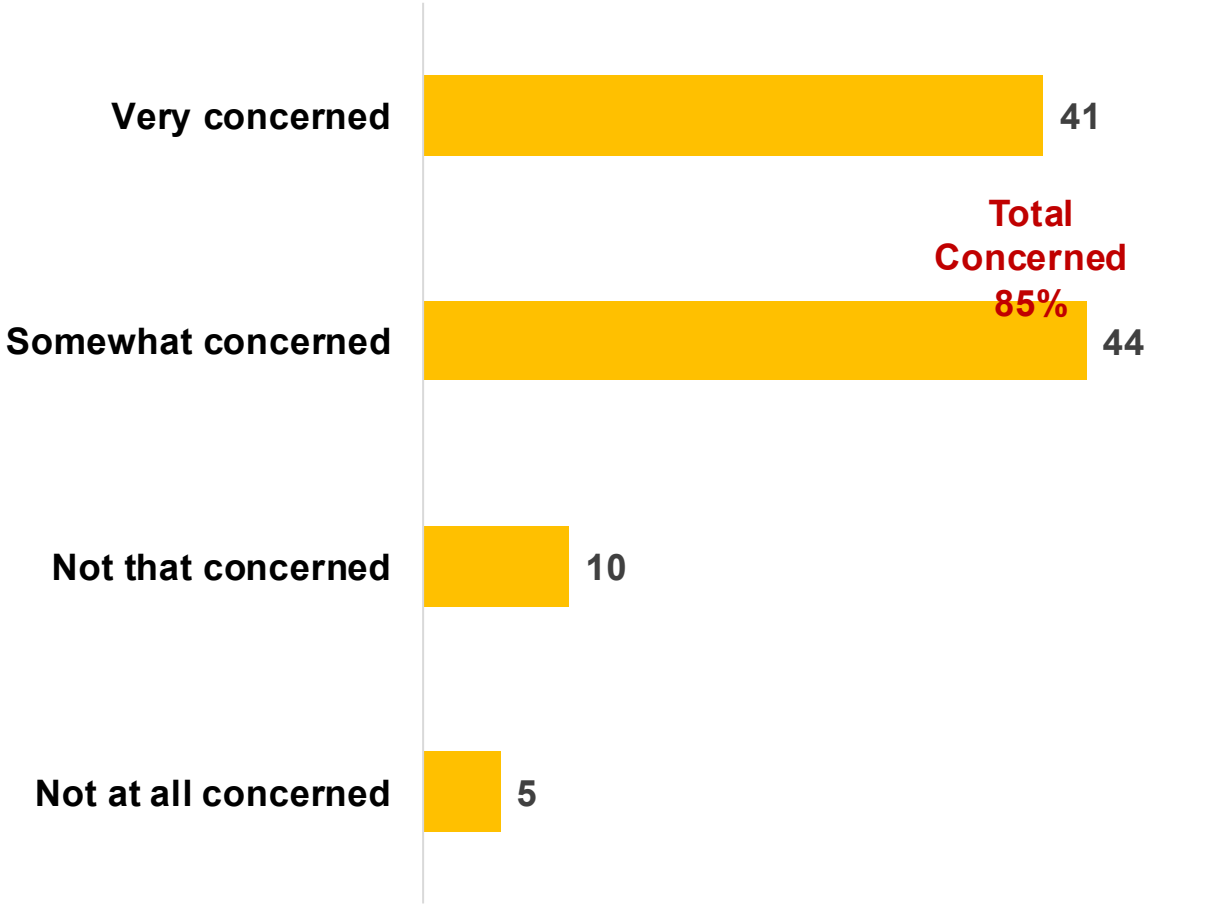
Data centers are unpopular with the majority of Arizona Latino voters

Artificial Intelligence (AI) relies on data centers, large buildings full of computers. Some say they bring jobs and tax revenue. Others say they use too much water and electricity, raising utility bills. Do you support or oppose building data centers near your community?

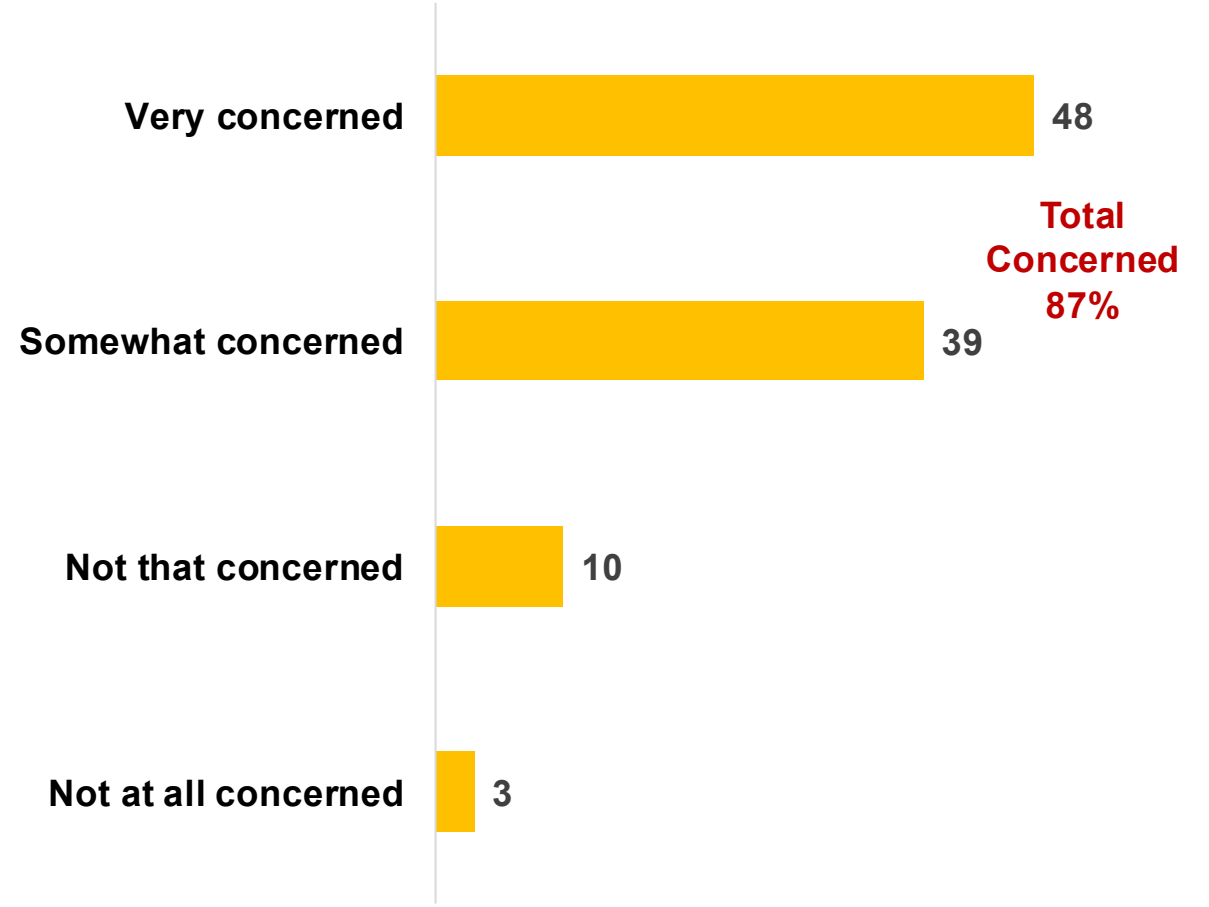


Arizona Latino voters concerned about lack of checks and balances in Congress and Judiciary

How concerned, if at all, are you that Congress is not exercising its checks-and-balances role and is giving up too much authority to the President and executive branch?
(% concerned illustrated)

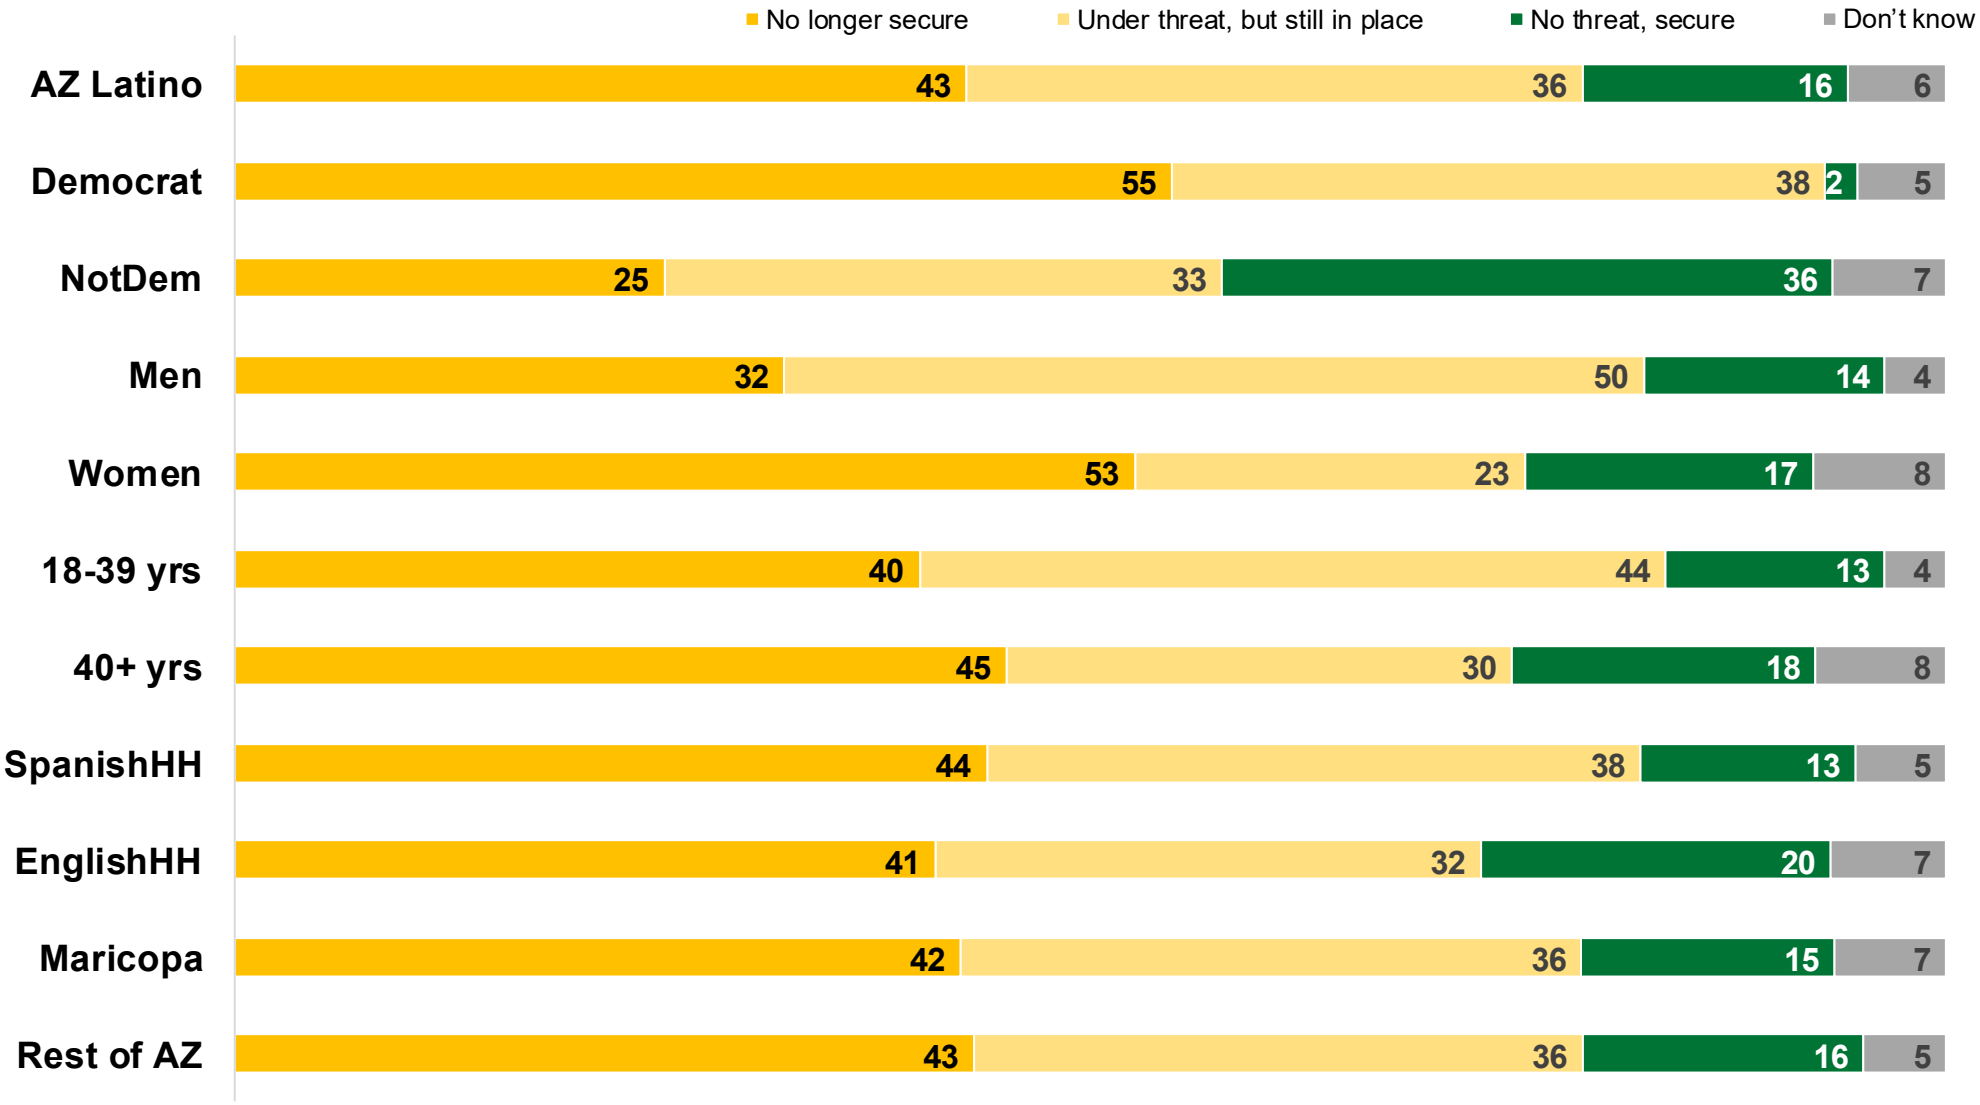


How concerned, if at all, are you that the U.S. Supreme Court is not exercising its checks-and-balances role and is giving up too much authority to the President and executive branch?
(% concerned illustrated)



Nearly eight in ten Arizona Latino voters say civil rights are under threat or no longer secure

Since Donald Trump returned to office in January 2025, would you say that civil rights and civil liberties, like freedom of speech, equal treatment under the law, protection from discrimination, the right to vote and the right to a fair trial, are:



Nearly two-thirds of Arizona Latino voters worry about being targeted because of their background

How worried, if at all, are you that you, your family, or your community could be targeted by government policies because of your race, ethnicity, religion, language, immigration status, or national origin.
