Q36: Next are some different policies being considered to reform the immigration system. Indicate if this is something you would be open to considering, or not.

Q36a. [SPLIT A] The current immigration system is unjust and unfair. ICE agents violate people's rights, separate families and even use violence. The current approach needs to be replaced with one that focuses on fairness, family unity, and due process.

Q36: Next are some different policies being considered to reform the immigration system. Indicate if this is something you would be open to considering, or not.

Q36a. [SPLIT A] The current immigration system is unjust and unfair. ICE agents violate people's rights, separate families and even use violence. The current approach needs to be replaced with one that focuses on fairness, family unity, and due process.
